I Never Thought About It Till I Saw It

Adopting randomly found online images as reference and using the panorama setting on his smartphone camera, Morgan Buck weaves together a series of six paintings that speak of a psychology and unwonted deduction. Included in this exhibition are six new works that seek a narrative that is fictitious of an otherwise legitimate origin. Buck's considers this unorthodox use of the Internet to develop content (subsequently resulting in a printouts as a reference point) as a developing way of the removal of self from an initial step in the painting process, allowing a "disinterested self-expression", with the painting using airbrush on canvas completing a final imaginative illusion.

Morgan Buck lives and works in Portland, Oregon. He earned a BFA from the Pacific Northwest College of Art and a MFA from Oregon College of Art and Craft. Recent exhibitions include Goggles Glazed Over, Upfor Gallery, Portland Oregon and Real Images of American History, Kunstraum Ping Pong, Leipzig, Germany. Buck currently holds European representation with Lesluzep, an online gallery for contemporary art based in Zurich, Switzerland.

FalseFront is open Saturdays and Sundays, 12 - 3pm and by appointment. Please contact info@falsefrontstudio.com or +1 503 781-4609 for further information.
